2010 Get Involved

It's Your Association

The PWAR Mission

The purpose of the REALTOR® Association Prince William of is to provide products, services and programs which strengthen the ability of its members to conduct their business successfully and ethically, and to promote the preservation of the right to own, use and transfer real property.

Vision Statement

PWAR is a dominant center of influence in the industry and the community. Our members are highly successful, ethical, passionate professionals and leaders who look to the association as the premier source of education, services and technology support. We create and lead coalitions that shape and control local, state and national real estate legislation and regulation.

TIME is MONEY

We know you must budget your efforts between business, family and community. When you invest in PWAR, you are investing in your industry and yourself. This is your association, and we need your support to ensure your business is protected.

Three Ways to Get Involved:

- Events: PWAR hosts many events throughout the year from the annual tradeshow to formal functions the networking is abundant.
- Education Seminars: Earn CE and PL credits while building relationships with fellow REALTORS®.
- Committees: Enjoy planning, generating ideas and making things happen? Then committee involvement is for you. Join us and make a difference.

Return on Investment

- Knowledge: From industry news to legislative efforts, if you want to be in the know, volunteering is a great way to start.
- Networking: Real estate is a people business. The more REALTORS® you meet, the easier business will be. Let PWAR be your platform for networking with over 2300 agents and brokers.
- Leadership Training: You will be exposed to different leadership styles and opportunities to chair committees and task forces. Many committee leaders pursue election to the PWAR leadership team.
- Making an Impact: By becoming involved, you will make a lasting impact on your association.

Your Commitment

- Time: Serving on a PWAR Committee can take one to two hours a month depending upon the projects.
- Thought: It all begins with an idea. A good brainstorming session is the starting point of everything from education seminars to event themes. Don't be afraid to think outside the box.
- Salesmanship: Volunteers are given the opportunity to represent the association in your office.
- Respect: Leadership, members, and staff have one mission- To work for the good of the association.

"Participation in any of the PWAR committees is a great opportunity to network with our fellow professionals and to learn about the inner workings of the various organizations that fall under the REALTOR® umbrella."

- Cindy Stackhouse, REALTOR®.
